5. Betty Goetz, Staff Director of the Senate Disarmament Subcommittee, telephoned to advise that Senator Humphrey would like very much to have Dr. Scoville and Mr. Northrup sit with the Subcommittee in executive session to discuss further certain aspects of the problem of detection of Soviet nuclear explosions. Miss Goetz also indicated that the questionnaire sent out by the Subcommittee on seismic reportings had been forwarded to the Agency for comment. Action will be coordinated with Dr. Scoville and the DCI.

6. Upon information from the DCI's office, Mr. Roy Bullock, Inter-American Affairs Subcommittee of House Foreign Affairs Committee, was advised that the Director would be able to appear at 10:30 on Wednesday, 18 June 1958.
